Recent Registered Client Associate for Moran Edwards Attends Lunch with Warren Buffett

NAPLES, Fla. (December 5, 2011) – Rob Edwards, a recent Registered Client Associate with Moran Edwards Asset Management Group in Naples, was one of only 120 students in the country appointed to attend a luncheon with American business magnate, investor, and philanthropist, Warren Buffett. The luncheon was held on November 11 in Omaha, Nebraska.

Edwards applied to attend the luncheon through the MBA program at The University of Notre Dame Mendoza College of Business and was one of just 19 students selected from that school.

At the luncheon, Buffett spoke about everything from the American economy and its resiliency; reducing the country's deficit; Berkshire Hathaway's investment philosophy; and the impact Benjamin Graham had on Buffett while he attended Columbia. After Buffett spoke, he then answered questions from the students for over two hours and wrapped up by taking photographs with students for over an hour.

Edwards said, "I was struck by how lighthearted, intelligent, and easy going Mr. Buffett was in person. He is exactly as you see on television – maybe even more humble."

Edwards feels lucky to have been selected to attend this luncheon and feels he made a sound investment.

Edwards will graduate from The University of Notre Dame Mendoza College of Business with an MBA in May and plans to continue in investment management with the ultimate goal of becoming a portfolio manager.
